

My name is Abdi.
I am your friend.
I am from Somalia.
I live in Rathmines in Dublin 6.
I came to Ireland in 2014.
I am a student in Dublin 1.
In Somalia, my family has a farm. We have cows.

Every day I cycled for twenty minutes from my house to my farm. On the farm, I had cows. I also had corn, beans, tomatoes, and watermelon. Sometimes, the Shebelle River would flood, and the farm would be destroyed. This was a big problem.

I came to Ireland because I had problems in Somalia.

I like Ireland because it is a peaceful country and Irish people support me.

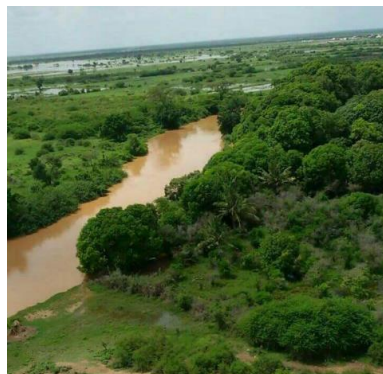

In the future, I want to improve my English and computer skills, and I would like to get a job. Insha'Allah.
