

My name is Cedric. I am twenty-one years old.
I am from the Ivory Coast. I live in Glasgow, Scotland.

I came to Scotland with my dad and older brother when I was 18. My mum and sister also live in Scotland.

We had to flee the Ivory Coast because there was a civil war. It was not safe for my family.

I live with my mum, brother and sister. I go to Glasgow College and study English and maths. In the beginning English was difficult for me but now it is getting easier.

I like boxing and I train a few days a week. I am a volunteer in a charity shop and in a bike shop where I repair bikes. In the future I would like to be an engineer.

I would like to visit the Ivory Coast again one day but I don't think I would like to live there. I have many friends in Scotland now. I miss my friends and family in the Ivory Coast.
