

My Busy Weekend

My name is Paul, and last weekend was very busy. I was so tired on Sunday night, but it was a great weekend. My friends from England came to visit me. It was great to see them. There were three friends in total, Simon and his wife Sarah, and another friend Julie.

I met them at the airport on Friday afternoon. We went to a Moroccan restaurant for dinner. It was delicious. I had cous-cous and a meat tagine. After the restaurant we went to a wine bar for a drink. We chatted and laughed until it closed at 12.30am.

On Saturday morning my friends had a lie-in. I got up about 8 o' clock and went shopping. I bought some eggs, bacon, tomatoes, mushrooms, potatoes, beans, bread, and milk. When I returned home, I made a big 'Irish breakfast' for my three friends. It was the biggest breakfast they had ever eaten!

After breakfast we drove to the Dublin Mountains. We went for a nice long walk. We saw some wild deer and my friends took many photographs. Following the walk we went home, had lunch, rested for a while, and then went into the city centre.

My friends wanted to go shopping. They bought some Irish souvenirs, clothes and Irish books. When the shops closed, we went for a Kebab and chips on Dame Street. It was very good.

On Saturday night we went to a disco. We danced for many hours. It was great fun. The disco finished about 2.30am. On Sunday morning we were all very tired, so we slept until about 11.30 am.

On Sunday we went for a walk in the Phoenix Park. It was a little chilly, but not too cold, and it wasn't raining. That afternoon we decided to go to the cinema to watch a movie. We saw a romantic comedy. It was quite good, and we laughed a lot.

After a quick dinner in a lovely Indian restaurant, I took my friends to the airport. I'm sure they slept on the plane all the way home.

That was my busy weekend. It was full of activities and great fun. I slept for 10 hours on Sunday night!
