

A visit to a Farmer's Market

My name is Susan. I am a schoolteacher.
I am 30 years old. I am from Galway, but I live in Dublin. I live near a river. I like my house because I can hear the sound of the stream every day. I hear the birds singing in the trees.
Sometimes I see a fox and sometimes I see a heron.

I work 5 days per week. I have free time at the weekend.
Every Saturday I visit the Farmer's Market.
There is always a crowd of people. They chat and talk.
They are very loud. Children play hopscotch and run around.
Everybody is happy. The food is fresh and healthy.

I buy many fruits and vegetables. I like peaches, apples and bananas but I don't like pineapple. I really like spinach but I hate broccoli.
I pay for my food and I sit down with my friends.
I eat a beef sandwich and drink a cup of green tea.
I usually have ice-cream when it is a sunny day.
I leave the farmer's market at 4pm. I am a little sad.
But I say to myself, "Tomorrow is another day!"
