

1st and 2nd conditionals: connect the sentences

1	If I go to the post office		I would join a gym.
2	If I have the time		I'll call you later.
3	If I had the time		he will go to bed early.
4	If I earned more money		I would certainly visit the Louvre.
5	If the sun is shining tomorrow		I think I will make some soup.
6	If I have phone credit		I'll buy some carrots and onions.
7	If I had an iPhone X		they could probably find a better job.
8	If I went to Paris		I'd look for a job.
9	If I go shopping		she could learn how to drive.
10	If I feel cold tomorrow		she would have more time for herself.
11	If I were you		we will go to the park.
12	If he wasn't bald		I will pay my electricity bill.
13	If she was older		we won't miss the train.
14	If he goes to the party		I would go on a holiday twice a year.
15	If they spoke better English,		he will buy her a present.
16	If John is tired tonight		he'd go to the barber.
17	If Maria didn't have any children		I will clean my bathroom this evening.
18	If my friend is on time		My friends would be very jealous.

Can you think of the missing verb?

If I _____ shopping, I will _____ some new jeans.

If I _____ more money, I would _____ a new car.

If I _____ time, I will _____ you later.

If I _____ on holiday, I will _____ somewhere hot.

If I _____ the lotto, I would _____ around the world.

If I _____ the money, I will _____ my broken washing machine.

If I _____ you, I would _____ a gym.

If I _____ the president, I would _____ poor people.

If you _____ sick, I will _____ the teacher.

If I _____ a different job, I could _____ more money.

If I _____ time later, I will _____ some dinner.

If I _____ good Wi-Fi at home, I could _____ watch movies online.

If I _____ abroad, I will _____ some extra money.

If the weather _____ good tomorrow, we'll _____ outside.

If he _____ more friends, he would _____ out more.

If she _____ older, she could _____ to the disco.

If he _____ healthier food, he could _____ weight.

If they _____ the rent on time, the landlord will _____ happy.