

Too

These shoes are too small (they don't fit)

That car is too expensive (a lot more money than I have)

That place is too far away (the distance is more than I want to travel)

This mathematics question is too difficult. (I can't do it / I don't understand)

Write these sentences correctly too / Rent / in / Dublin / expensive / is top / is / tight / too / That new / iPhone / The / is / big / too short / She / for / the basketball / too / for / is / team exam / too / This / difficult / is too / Those / are / jeans / long hair / too / long / His / is to understand / programme / computer / This / is / difficult / too far / That / away / too / shopping centre / is too / was / I / late / the train / to catch too / She / to go / gym / to the / was / tired

Too much / Too many

Too much: uncountable

Too many: countable

Meaning: More than I want / need / is necessary / is possible

We can use with noun, e.g. 'He has eaten too much food' ✓

We can't use with adjective, e.g. 'That car is too much expensive' ✗

Use too much / too many in the sentences below:

1. There are _____ chairs in that room.
2. He spent _____ money when he was shopping.
3. There were _____ people at the party.
4. There is _____ rice in that pot.
5. There are _____ questions in this test.
6. He has _____ pairs of shoes.
7. Tom has _____ free time.
8. There are _____ photos on your phone.
9. I don't think the price is _____.
10. I've eaten _____ cake.
11. Jane spends _____ time on her phone.
12. Debbie has _____ clothes in her wardrobe.
13. Gina thinks the cost of living in Dublin is _____.
14. Kate has _____ things to do today!
15. Bob has seen that movie _____ times!

Too much / Too many / Too

Correct or Incorrect

1. She has too many butter in the fridge.
2. That car is too much expensive.
3. There are too many people in the room.
4. I don't think this t-shirt is too tight.
5. These shoes are too money.
6. The city is too much crowded.
7. The shops are too busy at Christmas time.
8. Mike doesn't have too many money.
9. Tom is too much short for the basketball team.
10. Jenifer has too many pairs of shoes.
11. Tom is very wealthy. He has too many money to spend.
12. It's too hot to live in the desert.
13. That mobile is too much big.
14. She spends too time on her phone.
15. Those children are too much noisy.
16. There are too many people at the party.
17. That jumper is too much big.
18. I think there are too much cars in the city in the morning.

Short Answers

I _____ a lot.

I _____ a few.

I _____ a little.

I don't _____ much.

I don't _____ many.

I _____ none / I don't _____ any.

Do you have many clothes? _____

Do you have many friends in Ireland? _____

Do you have much sugar at home? _____

Do you have much free time? _____

Do you have many hobbies? _____

Do you take much milk in your tea? _____

Do you spend much time on your phone? _____

Do you spend much time watching TV? _____

Do you have many pairs of shoes? _____

Do you have much money in your bag? _____

Do you spend much time studying English? _____

Do you eat much fast food? _____

Do you drink much alcohol? _____

Do you have many cousins? _____

Do you spend much time in the shower? _____

Do you spend much time shopping at the weekend? _____

Do you know many Irish people? _____

Do you spend much time reading books? _____

In Dublin. Complete the sentences:

There are a lot of _____.

There are a few _____.

There is enough _____.

There are enough _____.

There is not enough _____.

There are not enough _____.

There are too many _____.

There is too much _____.

Dublin is too _____ and too _____.

In Dublin, there isn't any _____.

In Dublin, there aren't any _____.